PRINTING PRI

VOLUME XXXIII.—NO. 5.

LOUISVILLE, SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1914.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

DUBLIN

The Seene of a Terrible Conflict Between the Military and Citizens.

Four Person Killed and Over Sixty Are Taken Into Hospitals.

Police Commissioner Suspended For Calling Out King's Borderers.

HOME RULE PLANS ARE BALKED

Three men and one woman are dead and more than sixty persons are in the hospital wounded, as the are in the hospital wounded, as the of the congregation and the children result of a battalion of the King's gathered in the school hall to extend Own Scottish Borderers firing into their congratulations. E. J. Mann a crowd in the streets of Dublin last Sunday afternoon. Seven of the wounded are expected to die. Among pastor was praised for his good work wounded are expected to die. Among them are three women and a boy of ten. The affray was the result of a gun-running exploit of the Nationalist Volunteers, who were being aided by sympathizers composed largely of women and youths. A the result of the man present, Miss Irene Schmitt for the young women, and John M. Hennessey for the conditional states of the second states are the second states of the secon largely of women and youths. A the young men. The praises were consignment of rifles, said to number 10,000, was landed Sunday at mann, who thanked those present Howth, nine miles from Dublin, from a private yacht. The Nationalist Volunteers cut the telegraph wires and stopped travel on the Dublin roads, and according to reports sent away most of the rifles, together with 70,000 rounds of ammunition, in motor cars. A thousand volunteers marched openly from Dublin to receive the arms, but declared they were merely making a practice march. Local po-lice and the coast guard tried to prevent the landing of the arms, but were driven off. When the Dublin authorities learned of the landing they sent sixty police to seize the arms. They were later re-enforced by 200 others under command of an Assistant Commissioner. The police were drawn up on both sides of the road along which the volunteers were returning, with soldiers in the center of the road. When the volunteers saw the mobilization most of them got away with their arms, scattering through the fields. The police and soldiers tried to disarm the remainder. In the resulting affray several revolver shots were fired by volunteers, and a Corporal and a private were wounded. The volunteers also used their rifles as

The soldiers fired and used their bayonets freely, inflicting many cuts. Then they had a running fight with the volunteers and the rapidly growing crowds through the streets to their barracks.

The Lord Mayor has issued a the troops were ordered out without Mayor, and he demands that the re sponsibility shall be fixed for the supplying them with ball cartridges. "Dublin and Ireland look with confidence to John Redmond and his colleagues to bring to justice There must no longer be one law for a section of the Ulster

mainder of the Irish people."

The London Daily News calls the affair at Dublin a massacre, and demands a rigid investigation of the sponsibility upon the weakness of the Government which allowed the and could not prohibit the Nationalists from doing the same.

Monday night in Dublin, but it subsided without serious results. hundred volunteers paraded through the streets, a crowd of 4,000 followmarching in step and singing. Feeling runs high throughout Nationalist Ireland. Town Councils are adopting resolutions nouncing "the massacre." The garrisons are confined to barracks, and concerts by military bands in several towns have been canceled. The Lord Mayor of Dublin has called meeting of the Magistrates to consider the action of the Castle authorities in calling out the police city officials. The police threaten a strike unless those members of the department who were dismissed for disobedience of orders are reinstated. It is announced here that Sir John Ross, the Police Commis-sioner, resigned as a protest against the suspensions of Deputy Commis-sioner Harrell. The Nationalists are delighted, as Commissioner Ross was unpopular.

In London the first effect of the Dublin home rule tragedy was to smash Premier Asquith's plans for taking up the amended bill. The Premier announced that the question had been indefinitely postponed. The Irish members are so exasperated over the killing of four persons and the wounding of many others in the Nationalist volunteers that are in no frame of mind to it any concessions to Ulster. The orites and many Liberals support

Redmond, the Nationalist who demanded an impartial inquiry into the conduct of the troops and their punishment, if the shooting Redmond, the Nationalist leader, their punishment, if the shooting was not justified. Mr. Redmond compared "this monstrous business" with the parades of armed volunteers in Belfast. "To such a state of im-potence has the British Government been reduced in Ireland," he said, "that a subordinate official is able to call in soldiers without consulting he executive of the country." He expressed the hope that the Irish people would not blame the troops too much and concluded amid great cheers: "Four-fifths of the Irish people will not submit any longer to be bullied and punished for conduct which is allowed to go scot free in Ulster by another section of their fellow countrymen."

HONORS FOR PASTOR.

The sacerdotal jubilee of the Rev. George W. Schuhmann, D. D., com emorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the holy priesthood, which began Monday and continued Tuesday, marked perhaps the happiest event in the history of St. John's parish. Monday morning there was a high mass of thanksgiving, and in the evening members and bespoke a greater future for the hurch and school. The pleasing indident was the presentation of a floral basket to the jubiliarian, in which was concealed $1,200 as a token of love and esteem from his Tuesday morning parishioners, Father Schuhmann celebrated his jubilee mass in the presence of Bishop O'Donaghue and nearly a hundred of the clergy, when Father Westermann preached the sermon. Then followed an automobile ride and a great banquet at the Tyler Rev. John Riley, of Shelbyville, was the toastmaster, and brief out happy responses were made by Bishop O'Donaghue, Vicar General Cronin and the jubiliarian. Father Schuhmann thanked the priests for their generous participation in his silver jubilee, and expressed regret that with the completion of twentyfive years of service he leaves the buoyant junior clergy to take comfort, he said, in the thought that he is now to be added to the company senior priests, "tried and of the grown silvery in the service of the

CONNELLY'S SURPRISE.

County President William J. Conelly was given the surprise of his ife last Saturday noon when he arrived home from the Hibernian National convention, which had been in session at Norfolk, Va., that old wise bird, the Stork, having anticipated his arrival by leaving a pretty North Twentieth street, and just about the time he had started for home. Of course it goes without saying that he is being deluged with congratulations, also a little kidding on the side, while ex-State Presider George J. Butler, the proud grandpå has already filled out applications and the Ladies' Auxiliary.

REPORT ON PICNIC.

O. H., Monday evening, in Bertrand Hall, County Financial Secretary Langan made a preliminary repor on the recent County Board picnic and stated that when all ticket returns were made a handsome would be realized, and would be the est showing in years. Presiden John Hennessy complimented the Emerald Hibernian Social Club for the picnic and stated that the dance was a credit to the order. next meeting of the alternates will be elected at Covington on September 7 and 8.

SEASON'S BIG EXCURSION.

season will be that of the Catholic Knights of Louisville to Jasper, Ind., on Sunday, August 30. Arrangements have been made with the Southern Railway Company for first-class equipment and every accommodation to make the trip enjoyable. President Ben Kruse, Gen. Michael Reichert, Secretary Henry Schulten and Capt. Oscar Maier are making great preparations for a big day, and are being assisted by Capt. Kunkel and the Knights of Jasper. There will be a hearty welcome for the excursionists and many features for their entertainment. for their entertainment.

While in Washington last Saturday Lieut. Gov. Edward J. McDermott saw Senator Kern and asked him to indorse Daniel J. Dougherty, of Jeffersonville, Ind., as a candidate for a position as appraiser of physical properties under the Interstate Commerce Commission. Gov. McDermott pointed out that the Southern Indiana man is well qualified to fill such a place, and many Kentuckians would like to see Dougherty obtain the appointment.

M'LAUGHLIN.

Choice For National President of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Convention Sends Cable to Redmond Declaring For Ireland.

Addresses and Reports Received With Applause From Delegates.

BOSTON NEXT MEETING PLACE

The forty-ninth national convenon of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, held in Norfolk, has passed into history as the greatest and most successful that has taken place since the order was founded in America. Opening with high mass in St. Mary's church, the Right Rev. Dennis J. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond, preached a most eloquent sermon, extending the welcome of Virginia and Nolfolk to the Ancient Order. Bishop O'Connell paid a high tribute to the Ancient Order of Hibernians, telling of the birth of the order about 300 years ago in the determination of a people to worship God according to their own belief, "Your priests had been denied the right to say mass, but you said that they should say mass. On the mountain, in the valley, and behind the hedge, you maintained your worship your order has stood through these years as the staunch supporter of your church and faith." Story Was Fashioned by Some Pervert Says the Globe-

The first session was held in the Wells Theater, when addresses of welcome were delivered by County President John F. Lawler, Hon. Harrey M. Dickson and State President John J. Blake, the responses being made by Mrs. Ellen Ryan Jolly, National President of the Ladies Auxiliary, and National President James J. Regan, all being received with hearty applause. After the Credentials Committee reported officers, all of which showed the order in a most flourishing condition.

Home rule for Ireland occupied the attention of the convention on Thursday, when the following cablegram, signed by President Regan, was sent to John E. Redmond: "The Ancient Order of Hibernians, 200,000 strong, in national conven-tion assembled, extends its greetings to you and to the frish Volunteers. We pledge our assistance. Ireland must not be dismembered."

Ireland; Hon. Patrick J. Egan, for- the body or effects ner Minister to Chile, and Bourke Cochran, of New York, were visitors egan, but Sir Roger and Mr. Cochthe foremost mpressive and agreeable to them. In capable of believing it are course of his remarks Sir Roger stated that when the Irish Volunteers the statement dealt, and they nome rule will become a reality.

Board for two years. Among the resolutions introduced and adopted was one protesting against "efforts now being made by faddists" to inschool room. The resolution de-clares that the home is the proper place for imparting such knowledge. Following a spirited but friendly contest Joseph McLaughlin, of Phila-contest Joseph McLaughlin, of Phila-cere more vicious and unprinciorder in 1916.

COMING EVENTS.

Monday, August 3-Picnic and fish fry by the Passionist Fathers at Phoenix Hill Park for St. Agnes August 4 and 5-St. Columba's lawn fete and supper, afternoon and night, on church lawn, Thirty-fifth and Market.

August 10-Ladies' Auxiliary re-ception and dance at Senning's Park. August 11 and 12—Lawn festival and contest for St. Ana's church, on church grounds, Seventh and Davies.

August 12—St. Anthony Hospital Sewing Society lawn festival and auchor on Posthianal lawn. euchre, on Poschinger lawn, Vernon and Sycamore.

August 17 and 18—Holy Cross lawn fete and chicken supper on church grounds, Thirty-second and Broadway.

August 19—Annual festival of Young Men's Social Club, Schneiter's

August 20—Knights of Columbus annual outing at Fern Grove. Thursday, August 27—Annual re-union and picnic of St. Leo's congregation, on grounds adjoining church, Highland Park.

August 30-Catholic Knights' nual excursion to Jasper, Ind.

REFRESHING

Well Known Poper Expresses Strong Sentiments on Butt Incident.

People Who Believe This Anti-Catholic Fable Are Termed Monomanines.

Pervert Says the Globe-Democrat.

REV. DR. GLADDEN'S OPINION

In the General Assembly of the standing committee and the convention got down to real business. Wednesday's session was devoted to consideration of reports and the recommendations of the national officers, all of which showed the a candidate other than Woodrow Wilson in the Presidential election." C. L. Leppert, of South Omaha, Neb., wrote to ex-President Taft, asking him to either affirm or deny this statement. In a letter to Mr. Leppert, dated July 1, Mr. Taft de-clares that "the statement is false from beginning to end, and I wonder that a church or a minister of a force fell all over themselves, lit-church, who ought to be careful in erally speaking, in their haste to furgiving currency to statements of any nish the Beckham campaign man-character without the slightest agers with copies of the registration foundation, should be responsible list this being a parallel case with for this." Mr. Taft points out that that of other city and county offihave never been found.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat at the Friday morning session and July 18, in commenting on this mat- stated before in these columns, the addressed the order. Mr. Egan had ter, expresses itself in no uncertain been in the city since the convention terms on the circulation and acceptran only arrived that morning from It emphasizes the fact that Mr. New York, Sir Roger, who is non- Wilson was not nominated until Catholic, is one of the foremost almost two months after the Pitania almost two months after the Titanic leaders in the Irish Volunteer move-ment. The fact that he is non-Cath-olic made his address before a strictly Catholic body all the more "will do little good. The only people maniacs on the subject with which secretly hug it as proof of their suspicions. It was fashioned by some This he said would not mean civil pervert who wished to play on the war, but an overpowering strength prejudices of such persons. The only In comparison to the four armed surprising thing is that a speaker so counties of Ulster, that are opposing reckless as to repeat it before a rephome rule, would have the effect of insuring the bill. laws by the convention, which honored the retiring President by making him a member of the National Board for two years. Amang the stantiate it. A false sense courtesy should not serve to produce to a stantiate it. A false sense courtesy should not serve to produce to a stantiate it. courtesy should not serve to protect charges, even though they wear This editorial pronouncement the Globe-Democrat, a leading some of our communities, which have been flooded with similar and delphia, was elected National President of the Ancient Order on Saturday at the closing session of the biennial convention, and Boston was chosen for the meeting place of the present time. In the very same was named over located there resides a certain "Rev. McLaughlin was named over Maurice Donnelly, of Indiana, by a majority of 151. The vote was McLaughlin 285, Donnelly 124.

Other officers elected were: Patrick F. Cannon, of Connecticut, National Vice President; N. W. Delaney, of Illinois, Treasurer; P. J. Sullivan, of Connecticut, Secretary; J. C. Foy, National Vice President for Canada. Directors—John F. Healy, of Delaware: Thomas J. Matthews, of Rhode Island; Edward R. Hayes, of New Jersey; James Clancy, of Michigan; Myles F. McPartland, of New York.

COVINGTON.

The fortieth anniversary of their marriage was fittingly celebrated on Wednesday, July 29, by Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Averdick, of Covington. On Wednesday morning solemn high mass was sung in St. Aloysing church by the Rev. Father Ahmann of knowledge of many of their cler-

PRIMARY

Hand With McCreary and Stanley Gaining Much Ground.

Local Democrats Will Remember the Present Beckham Campaigners.

The Latter Not So Boastful and of the Local Result.

REICHERT PREFERRED TO HALY

This week, the closing one of the campaign for the United States Senatorial nominations for the long and short terms, was featured by the emarkable gains of Gov. McCreary, especially in this . district, Congressman Stanley holding his own here, while gaining ground out in the State, and ex-Gov. Beckham losing so rapidly that his campaign managers, becoming alarmed, had al-ready begun their threadbare cries of fraud, which comes with bad grace from the camp which was re-sponsible for the glaring frauds of he Beckham-McCreary primary, this statement never having been Beckham would have a walkover.

The change in the situation in Louisville and Jefferson county the past ten days, to say the least, has been startling. No later than two echoed by a few office-holders in the City Hall and Court House who espoused the Beckham cause early in the game with the hope of being known as original Beckham men in case the Haly brand of politics was successful here. As an evidence of this spirit the County Clerk's office of Major Butt cials who have attempted to dictate to subordinate employes and line them up in the Beckham camp. is not relished by local Democrats, leaders will have a hard time explaining their present attitude. many of them have realized that their candidate is doomed to run a bad third in this district, causing them to retreat from their former position and plead for harmony and a little mercy on Percy

The big drift to McCreary this past week emphasizes very forcibly the strength of Chairman Frank Mc-Grath in this district, who in a short period has gathered together a fighting force composed principally of his personal friends, and in the last few days has practically driven the Beckham forces to cover, and many of the later have already dropped the Beckham flag and gone into the McCreary or Stanley camps. The Stanley leaders will have a splendid working organization at every pre-cinct in the city, and Senator Hite Huffaker and Mack Pythian, who have been in charge of the local headquarters, predict a big plurality for their man in Jefferson county. The attempt of some of the Beckham forces to belittle the Stanley cam-Lawrence Reichert falls flat when is taken into consideration that Percy Haly is the Beckham sponsor. The Democrats of Louisville and the State of Kentucky who know Lawrence Reichert will follow his lead at any time and in any move-ment in preference to Beckham's man Friday.

In the three-cornered race for the Senatorial short term between Gen. Bennett Young, Senator Johnson Camden and ex-Congressman Dave Smith, Gen. Young has set a sizzling pace for both of his competitors and his aggressive campaign has been given wide mention in many of the papers out in the State, especially the speeches referring to the charge that Senator Camden bolted the Democratic Presidential ticket in 1896, 1900 and 1908, Gen. Young stating that the present Sen-ator had never been aligned with the party until the Gubernatorial cam-paign of 1911. Right here in Louispaign of 1911. Right here in Louisville and Jefferson county Gen.
Young is assured of a big vote, not only because of the fact that this is his home district, but his active interest in the ranks of the local Democratic party in the past has won him strong support, many of whom will represent him at the different precincts throughout the district.

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS.

Lourdes last week proved a stupendous demonstration of the faith. This was the twenty-fifth of these great international congresses and though none has been held in France since the war on the church began there, that country surpassed herself in the effort to make the celebration worthy of the jubilee year of an institution whose constant progress and fruitful results are among the most intense manifestations of the life of the church. The American hierarchy, led by Car-dinal Farley and Bishop Maes, was

ORPHAN PICNIC REPORT.

The recently organized Catholic Orphan Society held a special meeting Thursday night to receive final reports from the Fourth of July picnic for the benefit of St. Vincent's and St. Thomas' Asylums. There was a good attendance and upon all sides were seen indications of grow-ing interest in the society, President Meehan stating that branches were about to be organized in two more parishes. Secretary Thomas W. Ryan and Treasurer George Nabors presented the report of the Executive Committee, which showed that for the orphans the handsome sum of $3,870.99 had been netted from the picnic. This gratifying when consideration is church, belongs the honor of having given the short time the society has founded in 1727 the first convent been organized and the late date the decision was reached to undertake the work that provd so frutiful,

APPEAL TO WILSON.

An appeal to President Wilson to deny the use of the mails to the vile papers in this country that defame when wholesale robbery was per-petrated in the mountain districts. pared by the Rev. J. V. Hennessey the Catholic church has been pre-This being the election when trees of the Holy Spirit parish in Buffalo, and animals were voted and the Beckham supporters held back re- large number of signatures. It disturns three or four days waiting to tinguishes the liberty of the press see how many votes they needed, from the license of publishing libels; proclaims Catholics as loyal, disproven, and the McCreary and law-abiding and industrious citizens; Stanley campaign managers should protests against the invasion of rebe careful to prevent a repetition of the same tactics in this primary. That there is gonig to be a close race dirty publications in question, and That there is gonig to be a close rate is now conceded by the correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, force existing law against the use spondent of the will have to re- of the mails by such indecent journal if this be not sufficient to verse his opinion of early in the nals, and if this be not sufficient to campaign, when he predicted that procure the enactment of a law that procure the enactment of a law that will deny them the aid of the Government in the circulation of their slanders.

DESERVED PROMOTION.

His legion of friends throughout he city were greatly pleased Tuesday when announcement was made that Charles Raidy had been appointed Assistant Superintendent of Mails at the Louisville Postoffice, succeeding Lawrence J. Mackey, who resigned to become a candidate for Congress Robert L. Stultz succeeds Mr. Raidy as foreman of carriers, and his friends are also elated over his promotion. Both appointees have had long experience in the postal service, and it is safe to predict that they will make a record satisfactory to the Government, the public and

The Rev. James H. Cotter, who is widely known throughout the country as a lecturer and editorial writer for the Buffalo Catholic Union and session of their convent they opened Times, will on August 16 celebrate an academy for girls, the first in-the twenty-fifth anniversary of his stitution in the United States for the pastorate of St. Lawrence church at education of women. When they Ironton, Ohio. Father Cotter is de-moved to a larger building in the servedly popular with all classes, and his friends of the Catholic press rejoice with him in the culmination of a quarter of a century of good work. His devoted people in Ironton are making preparations for a celethe importance of the event.

TWO HAPPY YOUNG MEN

Joseph H. Weiler, of Bellevue, nd Charles L. McCloskey, of Bloomfield, are two of the happiest young try. She died at the age of fiftymen in the country. They recently two in 1761. took the examination Knights of Columbus graduate schol- many young girls sent out from arship, and Saturday they received France on the urgent appeal of Bienthe welcome intelligence that both ville as wives for the colonists, and had successfully passed. The win- as each band arrived they were conning of the prize makes them el-fided to the care of the Sisters until igible to the $1,500 scholarship in suitable husbands were secured for ining of the prize makes them eligible to the $1,500 scholarship in the Catholic University of America at Washington, D. C. Forty-one candidates, representing twenty-three States, were successful, the scholarships being quite evenly distributed over the different sections of the country. of the country.

CORNERSTONE LAYING.

With all the impressiveness that characterizes the ritual of the Cathoccasions, the Right Rev. Denis O'Donaghue, Bishop of the diocese of Louisville, with a large number of assisting priests, will lay the cor-neratone of the new St. Elizabeth church on East Burnet street on Sunday morning, August 9. Rev. Father James Assent is the energetic pastor of St. Elizabeth's, and under is administration the congregation been steadily increasing in num-s. Work will be pushed on the edifice, and when finished it will take rank with the largest and finest churches in Kentucky.

SUPPER BY LADIES.

The congregation of St. Columba's church, Thirty-fifth and Market, of which Rev. John D. Kalaher is the pastor, will give their annual lawn fete next Wednesday and Thursday, and are prepared to entertain great gatherings. Euchre and lotto will and are prepared to gatherings. Euchre and lotto we be played on the lawn both afternound and evenings. The ladies will see hot suppers, for which they become noted. An enjoyable time assured all who attend. The processill be for the benefit of the school building now nearing to the school building the second control of th

URSULINES

First Teaching Order of Women to Be Established in the Church.

Founded First Convent Within Limits of the United States.

How They Protected and Cared For Young Girls From France.

THEY CONDUCT ACADEMY HERE

By James A. Rooney, LL. D. To the Ursulines, the daughters of St. Angela and the first teaching order of women established in the founded in 1727 the first convent the limits of the United States, though the first house of the order in America had been founded in Canada by Mother Marie de l'Incarnation nearly a hundred years before. When in 1718 Bienville and his men transformed the abandoned Indian village of Tchoutchouma, about 110 miles from the Mississippi's mouth, into a city, which he named New Orleans in honor of the Duc d'Orleans of France, the plans of De La Tour, the chief engineer of the colony, included a parish church under the invocation of St. Louis, on whose site the old Cathedral stands today.

Here the Capuchins and Jesuits labored, going among the scattered French and Indians, and the new city grew apace until in 1725 they were ministering to about 1,000 families. More priests were needed and when Father Nicholas Ignatius Beaubois, the founder of the Jesuit mission, decided to make a voyage to France to enlist volunteers for the work, Blenville charged him to secure a band of nuns capable of taking harge of an hospital and school.

Father de Beaubois visited the Ursulines at Rouen and they agreed to organize a band for a foundation in the new world. Under authority of a royal patent issued September 18, 1726, Mother Mary Tranchepain, of St. Augustine, secured seven pro-fessed nuns from various conventsorder, besides Madeline Hauchard, a novice, and two postulants. The little colony, reinand two forced by Fathers Tartarin Doutreleau, sailed from L'Orient for Louisiana, and reached New Orleans August 6, 1727.

Bienville received the Sisters with joy and as their convent was not yet ready for occupancy he welcomed them to the hospitality of his own home. They lost no time in beginthey had journeyed so far, and on the day after their arrival they took charge of the hospital and a school for poor children. On taking poslower part of the city in 1724 their first convent became the Bishop's residence and later was used as the chancery office of the diocese.

As the Ursulines had established the first convent in the United States, it goes without saying that they numbered in their community the first nuns professed in the country. One of these, Mary Turpin, daughter of a Canadian father and an Indian mother, was the first native American nun to take the veil in this coun-

The Ursulines also gave asylum to many young girls sent out from be able to trace their descent from these "casket girls." From these small beginnings the Ursulines have spread all over the United States, numbering now about 1,800 professed nuns, and they have strictly adhered to the original objects of their foundation, which was expressly and exclusively the educa-tion of young girls. They are found teaching in parochial schools conducting academies all over country, and in 1904 they established at New Rochelle the first Catholic college for women in the United

The splendid Sacred Heart Academy at Crescent Hill is conducted by the Ursuline Sisters.

CHANGE FOR BETTER.

Friends of Phil McGovern, well known veteran letter carrier, will be glad to learn that there has been a slight change for the better in his condition this week. For over a month he has been confined to his home, being for some time in a rather critical condition, but his recovery, though slow, now seems

LEAVES FOR VACATION.